Problem #53

Theorem:

For all n, $n^2 - n + 11$ is a prime number

Proof:

False. Counterexample: Let n=11. By substituting n for 11 you get $11^2 - 11 + 11 = 121$ which is not a prime number.